 - 4.12.8 Making arrangements, in collaboration with the VP Internal and the Director of Marketing and Design, on DSA merchandise. The Director shall explore and propose alternatives to purchasing single-use materials, if possible.

ARTICLE FIVE: DVM COMMITTEE

- 5.1 The DVM Committee is the volunteer team for the DSA.

- 5.2 The DVM Committee is comprised of students, which serve to assist the DSA Executive with execution of social, academic, political, and philanthropic initiatives on an as-needed basis.
- 5.3 The DVM Committee is to be directed primarily by the Director of DVM Committee, with additional support from any other relevant Executives or Directors.

ARTICLE SIX: EXECUTIVE MEETINGS

- 6.1 Meetings of the Executive shall be held weekly during the fall and winter semesters.
 - 6.1.1 However, the Executive reserves the right to meet as often as it deems necessary and in the manner it deems appropriate.
- 6.2 During the summer period (May to August), Executive meetings must be held at least once a month.
- 6.3 Executive meetings are conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order, unless otherwise determined by a majority vote of the DSA Executive Committee.
- 6.4 If a DSA Executive or Director fails to attend an Executive Committee meeting, they must provide an adequate reason;
 - 6.4.1 Executive members present may motion to vote on the adequacy of a reason if it is questioned;
 - 6.4.2 Failure to present adequate reasons for absences is justification for impeachment of an Executive member or dismissal of a Director
- 6.5 Quorum at Executive meetings is half of the Executive members plus one.
- 6.6 To the extent that it is feasible, Executive meetings are to be held at a set time and date, to be determined at the beginning of each semester.
- 6.7 Executive meetings are open to all DSA students, unless otherwise determined by the Executive. Additionally, minutes will be made available for all students, in both French and English, made easily accessible online.
- 6.8 Each of the elected members of the Executive has an equal vote.
- 6.9 Votes at Executive meetings are taken by a show of hands and are decided by a simple majority, that is to say 50% of eligible voters present and voting plus one.
- 6.10 The agenda for each Executive meeting is submitted by the President at the start of the meeting.
 - 6.10.1 Any additions may be subjected to a vote at the request of a member of the Executive.
- 6.11 Anyone intervening at an Executive meeting may do so in English or in French and may request that any verbal intervention or written document presented at the meeting be explained to them in either of these languages.
- 6.12 Each executive member is individually responsible for implementing Executive decisions and duties assigned to them within the deadline set out at those meetings.

ARTICLE SEVEN: IMPEACHMENT PROCEDURES

- 7.1 Motives allowing the instigation of impeachment procedures against a member of the Executive must be among the following:
 - 7.1.1 Mismanagement of DSA funds or assets;
 - 7.1.2 Failure to fulfill constitutional duties without valid reason;
 - 7.1.3 Failure to carry out specific directives adopted at an official Executive meeting without valid reason;
 - 7.1.4 Abusive power and or position;
 - 7.1.5 Use of discriminatory and/or oppressive language when representing the DSA.
 - 7.1.6 Failure to support the other members of the executive and their efforts or failure to respect DSA members including the executive.
- 7.2 The impeachment of an Executive member requires:
 - 7.2.1 The submission of a petition;
 - 7.2.1.1 Signed by 40 members and including the student number of each signatory, or signed by half plus one of the elected executive members;
 - 7.2.1.2 The petition must be submitted to the Executive and the parties involved in the complaint.
 - 7.2.2 A vote of two-thirds of members present at a General Assembly.
 - 7.2.2.1 This Assembly must be called within seven business days of the Executive's receipt of the petition.
 - 7.2.2.2 A quorum of twenty DSA members must be obtained for this Assembly to be duly constituted.
 - 7.2.2.3 If a quorum is not reached the impeachment procedure will be withdrawn.
- 7.3 Any petition and any resolution of a General Assembly whose purpose is to impeach a member of the Executive must specify the precise events or activities justifying impeachment.
- 7.4 Each party to the impeachment complaint may appeal the decision of the Constitution Committee of the UOSU in accordance with the provisions set out in the UOSU Constitution.

ARTICLE EIGHT: ELECTIONS

- 8.1 The DSA Elections are subject to Bylaw 11 of the UOSU Constitution.
- 8.2 The DSA Executive and Directors must be neutral and therefore no member of the Executive or a Director can under any circumstances openly support any candidate running for a position on the DSA Executive or participate in any campaign unless it is their own.

- 8.3 The elections of DSA executive members must be completed by March 31st with the exception of Vice President of Junior Affairs;
 - 8.3.1 The election of the Vice President of Junior Affairs must be completed by the end of the first week of October.
- 8.4 No person campaigning for a position on the DSA Executive Committee may be a scrutinizer.
- 8.5 No person campaigning for a position on the DSA Executive Committee may assist in the organization or execution of the election.
- 8.6 Candidates can be authorized by the CEO to use up to 20 posters (maximum of 11 by 17 inches each) to promote their candidacy.
- 8.7 Candidates can spend up to $25 on election expenses and must submit receipts to the CEO.
- 8.8 The Executive is responsible for elections promotions that include the following:
 - 8.8.1 class presentations to a minimum of 50% of the classes represented by the DSA at the time of the campaign;
 - 8.8.2 visual notification of the ongoing campaign, at least one (1) week before the campaign starts, these may include but are not limited to posters;
 - 8.8.3 visual notification beyond notification on, in, or around the DSA office, and must be present in more than one (1) building;
 - 8.8.4 promotional information distributed electronically through at least two different services/formats; these must include but are not limited to the official DSA website and some other form of bulk notification.

Timetable

- 8.9 The timetable for the elections must be established by the Executive and must include the following points:
 - 8.9.1 the deadline for nominations for the Chief Electoral Officer;
 - 8.9.2 the deadline for nominations for Executive positions;
 - 8.9.3 the deadline to submit electoral platforms;
 - 8.9.4 the dates of the campaign period, which shall span no less than one calendar week;
 - 8.9.5 the date of the candidates' debate;
 - 8.9.6 the voting date or dates.

Special Electorate Rules

- 8.10 The electorate for the vice-president of Senior Affairs will be restricted to students who have or will have completed their second year of the program of International Development and Globalization.
- 8.11 The electorate for the Vice-President of Junior Affairs will be restricted to students currently enrolled in either their first and second years of the program of International Development and Globalization.

Chief Electoral Officer

- 8.12 The CEO will be determined by simple majority vote of the DSA Executive.
 - 8.12.1 The CEO must be a student of the University of Ottawa.
 - 8.12.2 The CEO cannot be a student represented under the DSA.
- 8.13 The CEO is accountable to the Executive for the proper management of the electoral process.
- 8.14 The DSA Executive can vote to dismiss the CEO for favouring a candidate, not performing their duties as outlined, or demonstrating a lack of respect for electoral procedures.
- 8.15 The CEO is responsible for:
 - 8.15.1 announcing and publicizing the elections, as well as all events and deadlines associated with the elections;
 - 8.15.2 ruling on all questions concerning the organization and the administration of the elections;
 - 8.15.3 drafting electoral regulations and ensuring that they are respected;
 - 8.15.4 printing the official nomination forms and online voting system;
 - 8.15.5 ensuring all equipment and facilities necessary to the elections are procured;
 - 8.15.6 obtaining and guarding as strictly confidential the official enrolment list of students in the International Development and Globalization program for the purpose of identifying valid voters on the date(s) of the election. Only the CEOs, their assistant(s), and the polling officers are authorized to view this list;
 - 8.15.7 coordinating the counting of ballots directly following the elections;
 - 8.15.8 disqualifying candidates who contravene the rules of the election.

Candidates

- 8.16 In order to be considered eligible, all requirements must be satisfied:
 - 8.16.1 Candidates must be in the International Development and Globalization program;
 - 8.16.2 All candidates must submit their election form specifying the position selected;
 - 8.16.3 Candidates cannot form teams or slates nor may they combine resources or technical aid. This includes the sharing of labour or costs;
 - 8.16.4 Candidates and any recognized members of their campaign who make or publish any false statement of fact in relation to the personal character or conduct of a candidate will be disqualified;
 - 8.16.5 Candidates cannot run for more than one position on the Executive in any given election;
 - 8.16.6 only students in their first 4 semesters at the University of Ottawa are eligible to run for the position of Vice President of Junior Affairs;
 - 8.16.7 only students in their last 4 semesters of their undergraduate degree are eligible to run for the position of Vice President of Senior Affairs.

The Vote

- 8.17 Every member of the DSA has one vote that they may exercise themselves or through a proxy.
- 8.18 Each student must verify their identification in order to vote.
- 8.19 The CEO, at the opening of the polls, must mark their ballot preferentially for all options, with a “1” denoting the most preferred choice, followed by a “2”, and so forth.
- 8.20 The ballot of the CEO must be sealed and opened only in the event of a tie.
- 8.21 The elections will be conducted by secret ballot using a preferential voting system.
- 8.22 Each ballot will be an official document on which the names of the candidates, as they appear on the successfully completed nomination forms, are listed alphabetically from A-Z according to their surnames.
- 8.23 In the case of there only being one candidate for a position, a vote of confidence will be used in the form of ‘yes’ or ‘no’ being placed next to their name.
- 8.24 In races with multiple candidates, the candidate receiving the most votes according to the preferential voting system shall be declared elected to the position. In the case of there only being one candidate for a position, the candidate will be declared elected if they receive more ‘yes’ votes than ‘no’ votes.

Ballot Counting

- 8.25 Ballot counting will be the responsibility of the CEO and their assistant(s).
- 8.26 Both the ballots and official enrolment lists must not be destroyed until after five business days after the election results have been finalized.
- 8.27 There will be an automatic recount of the ballots if less than ten ballots separate the elected candidate from their opponent(s).
- 8.28 The CEO will officially announce the results of the elections on the same evening as the ballot counting.
- 8.29 Any candidate may demand a recount. In order to do so, they must submit a written request to the CEO within two business days of the initial ballot count.
- 8.30 The CEO must advise all other affected candidates for that particular position before the recount may take place.
- 8.31 Any member of the DSA may contest election results by submitting a request to the CEO within two business days of the official announcement of the results.

Vacancies

- 8.32 If a position has not been filled or becomes vacant the executive, under the direction of the President and Vice President of Internal Affairs, will assess whether to hold a by-election, or to formulate and publish an application open to all eligible DSA students. Applications will be assessed blindly by the executive in order to fill the position by appointment.

- 8.33 If a position cannot be filled by application or by-election the executive may upon unanimous consent fill the position with an existing executive committee member (double position) or leave the position vacant and the executive as a whole becomes responsible for those duties.

ARTICLE NINE: GENERAL ASSEMBLY

- 9.1 The General Assembly is to be organized by the Vice President of Internal Affairs, unless otherwise determined by the DSA executive.
- 9.2 The chair of the General Assembly must chair according to a voting system decided upon by the Executive prior to the General Assembly.
- 9.3 The DSA's General Assembly must be chaired by an undergraduate student at the University of Ottawa who is not a member of the DSA, in the case this requirement cannot be filled the GA shall be chaired by the Vice President of Internal Affairs. The chair of the GA must be decided upon by a majority vote of the executive.
- 9.4 Quorum is set at 20 DSA members, including members of the Executive Committee. In order for quorum to be valid, there must be at least 12 DSA members who are not on the Executive Committee.
- 9.5 The General Assembly must be advertised by the DSA Executive at least one week in advance indicating in both English and French the date, time, and location of the meeting. The date of the General Assembly must be decided upon and announced by the DSA Executive by the second week of the academic term.
- 9.6 Any motion may be presented at a General Assembly without prior notice.
- 9.7 Votes on motions presented at a General Assembly, except as they pertain to the impeachment of an Executive member, are taken by a show of hands and are decided by a simple majority, which is 50 percent of students present and voting plus one. In the case of a tie, the motion is lost.
- 9.8 A General Assembly of the DSA must be held prior to the elections taking place in the winter semester.
- 9.9 An emergency meeting of the General Assembly may be called by way of the submission of a petition to the Executive signed by at least 20 members of the DSA.
- 9.10 The Executive must call a General Assembly within five business days following the submission of such a petition.
- 9.11 At General Assemblies, members may:
- 9.10.1. Adopt minutes from the previous general assembly;
 - 9.10.2. Receive and consider, in winter, the financial statements of the DSA for the past semester;
 - 9.10.3. Receive and consider, in fall, the financial statements of the DSA for the past year;

- 9.10.4. Endorse positions adopted by the Executive;
- 9.10.5. Receive the annual report of the DSA;
- 9.10.6. Set general directions of the DSA for the next semester or the next years;
- 9.10.7. Set up committee(s) to help the General Assembly to perform its duties;
- 9.10.8. Be informed of any other matter the DSA may be involved with;
- 9.10.9. Call a general assembly on a topic related to the general assembly as set out in the constitution;
- 9.10.10. Exercise its veto power on any previous decisions of the DSA or on decisions of other instances of the DSA;
- 9.10.11. Take position, as a sovereign entity, on any topic it deems as relevant;
- 9.10.12. Modify or ratify the present constitution;
- 9.10.13. Adopt new regulations or procedures;
- 9.10.14. Impeach any member of the executive, by a vote of two-thirds;
- 9.10.15. Call a referendum for consultation, decision or dissolution.

ARTICLE TEN: CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

- 10.1 Changes to the DSA Constitution may be done by way of either a General Assembly or a referendum question.
- 10.2 Amendments to the DSA Constitution may be proposed without prior notice at a General Assembly held in accordance with Article 9.
- 10.3 Amendments proposed by way of a referendum must be announced and advertised at least twenty business days prior to the date of the referendum.
- 10.4 The UOSU is responsible for appointing a referendum convenor.
- 10.5 The referendum question will be placed on the ballot with the choice of voting “Yes” or “No” to the question.
- 10.6 Voting, ballot counting and the announcement of the referendum results will take place in accordance with the elections rules enumerated in Article 8.
- 10.7 A simple majority (50 percent of votes cast plus one) is required for a referendum question to pass. In the case of a tie, the motion is lost.

ARTICLE ELEVEN: INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT WEEK

- 11.1 The DSA is responsible for organizing a week of activities followed by a conference pertaining to international development, in conjunction with the national IDW.
- 11.2 The IDW Director will select the IDW Executive Planning Committee (e.g. external and internal logistics, delegation, and volunteers coordinator positions).
- 11.3 The IDW Director will hold and attend regular meetings beginning at the outset of their mandate.
- 11.4 The IDW Director, with feedback from the Vice President of Finance, Director of Communications, Director of Bilingualism and Translations, and Director of Marketing and Design must write a transition report (separate from DSA

- transition report) for their successor before the end of their term, even if returning for a second term.
- 11.5 Each member of the appointed IDW executive body must write a transition report for their successor before the end of the winter semester, even if returning for a second term.
 - 11.6 The Vice President of Finance's responsibilities for IDW include, but are not limited to:
 - 11.6.1 Attending all IDW executive and volunteer meetings.
 - 11.6.2 Ensuring that IDW is operating within the approved budget and keeping track of all expenses and revenue.
 - 11.6.3 Seeking out financial sponsorship.
 - 11.7 The Director of Communications' responsibilities for IDW include, but are not limited to:
 - 11.7.1 Attending all IDW executive and volunteer meetings as deemed necessary by the IDW Executive Planning Committee Chairperson.
 - 11.7.2 Creating a strategic communications strategy to promote IDW leading up to and during the event.
 - 11.8 The Director of Bilingualism and Translation's responsibilities for IDW include, but are not limited to:
 - 11.8.1 Attending all IDW executive and volunteer meetings as deemed necessary by the IDW Executive Planning Committee Chairperson.
 - 11.8.2 Ensuring that IDW is a bilingual event; this includes engaging Francophone students and ensuring that there are Francophone panelists and workshop facilitators.
 - 11.9 The Director of Marketing and Design's responsibilities for IDW include, but are not limited to:
 - 11.9.1 Attending the IDW executive meetings as deemed necessary by the IDW Executive Planning Committee Chairperson;
 - 11.9.2 Attending all IDW volunteer meetings;
 - 11.9.3 Designing an IDW logo to use on informational and promotional material.
 - 11.10 Other members of the DSA executive responsibilities for IDW include, but are not limited to:
 - 11.10.1 Attending the IDW executive meetings as deemed necessary by the IDW Director;
 - 11.10.2 Supporting the IDW Director on an as-needed basis throughout the preparation for the event.

ARTICLE TWELVE: GENERAL POINTS

- 12.1 The DSA should make use of the workshops made available by the UOSU services, including but not limited to Positive Space Training, Ally Training, Anti-O Training, and Active Listening, and ensure presentations of these

- workshops, and others that would be beneficial to achieving our mandate, take place at Executive and DVM Committee meetings.
- 12.2 The Executive Committee and Directors must take the online training for the AODA within the first month of its mandate in order to be sufficiently prepared for making all its initiatives meet the accessibility requirements of the province of Ontario.
 - 12.3 Promotional material for all events must include the following: “Accessibility accommodations will be made available upon request, to the best of the ability of the DSA”. A date by which the request must be made will be included on the material.
 - 12.4 When purchasing items for events, clothing orders, etc., the DSA will invest in items that are fair trade, organic, sustainable, or otherwise ethically certified, unless faced with major barriers as determined by the executive committee.
 - 12.5 In recognition that the University of Ottawa is located on unceded and unsundered Algonquin territory, the DSA will make land acknowledgements at its events and in its promotional materials.
 - 12.6 Executive members in charge of taking photos and videos at DSA events ensure that the context is appropriate and that they are respecting the individuals (including, but not limited to: students, facilitators, panelists, and faculty) being photographed/videotaped and that consent for publication, or lack thereof, is obtained and upheld.
 - 12.7 Any DSA student shall have the liberty to request the reevaluation of a DSA volunteer in extreme circumstances.
 - 12.7.1 Motives can be, but are not limited to:
 - 12.7.1.1 The DSA volunteer has abused their power and/or position
 - 12.7.1.2 The DSA volunteer has used discriminatory and/or oppressive language and/or behaviour when representing the DSA
 - 12.7.1.3 The DSA volunteer may be an assailant
 - 12.7.2 Students should include as many details as they are comfortable, including (but not limited to):
 - 12.7.2.1 The name of the DSA Volunteer
 - 12.7.2.2 The grounds on which they believe the DSA volunteer’s position should be reevaluated
 - 12.7.2.3 If possible, any supporting information
 - 12.7.3 Students can submit this request to any member of the executive committee in any format they wish, and a written statement will be created by the President, VP Equity, and VP Internal with the aid of executive members who are comfortable with the nature of the complaint, and final approval from the requesting student

- 12.7.3.1 In the case of a request being submitted against the President, VP Equity or VP Internal, they will not be included in the statement writing process
- 12.7.4 The AEDSA stands for survivor-centered principles and wishes to protect the anonymity of the requesting student(s), therefore the volunteer shall be notified of the request and, based on the discretion of the executive on whether or not it is necessary, may be asked to provide a statement.
- 12.7.5 The request shall be presented to the executive committee, for those who are comfortable with the nature of the complaint, to evaluate if the volunteer is still an appropriate fit in their role as a volunteer for the DSA initiative(s) they are a part of. The DSA executive committee shall determine if this reevaluation results in the dismissal of a DSA volunteer. The DSA executive committee may discuss the situation with University of Ottawa or UOSU offices and resource centres, ensuring the anonymity of those involved in the request.
- 12.7.6 If the executive committee is in agreement by double majority that a dismissal is appropriate, and the DSA Volunteer is a member of the executive committee, the President, VP Internal, and VP Equity must decide which impeachment procedure, as outlined in Article Seven to move forward with.
- 12.7.6.1 In the case of a request being submitted against the President, VP Equity or VP Internal, they will not be included in the statement writing process
- 12.7.7 Both the requester and the volunteer shall be notified, separately, of the result of the request within 14 days
- 12.7.8 Each party to the impeachment complaint may appeal the decision of the Constitution Committee of the UOSU in accordance with the provisions set out in the UOSU Constitution

ARTICLE THIRTEEN: THE IDW EXECUTIVE

- 13.1 The IDW Director will select an IDW Executive through an application process. The IDW Director will choose the specific size and roles of this executive as necessary after consultation with the current DSA Executive.
- 13.2 The IDW Executive will be allotted two keys to the DSA Office. The distribution of these two keys will be at the discretion of the IDW Director. The IDW Executive members selected will be responsible for their own key for the duration of the year, following the same process as the DSA Executive. The key is to be returned within a month of IDW.
- 13.3 The IDW Executive may have access to the code to the FSS boardroom and therefore may use the boardroom for IDW activities.
